Dear Reader,

Golfing for a cause. Did you know the Crescenta Valley Chamber holds an annual golf tournament to raise scholarship funds for the two local High Schools? This event is terrific fun, so I try and play every year. This year I did something fun and interviewed the participants and several volunteers. Check out the videos. You'll enjoy the blooper reel involving a flying golf club!

Monday, August 29, you can join ChapCare for their 3rd annual Swing fore Health Golf Tournament. Proceeds will help cover the cost of medical services for over 3,000 financially struggling, low-income, uninsured individuals and families. Rockhaven, the country's first feminist sanitarium in Glendale, is listed in a new book by Journalist and author Mimi Slawoff. Her book, "Oldest Los Angeles," acts as a tour guide for tourists and residents who want to learn more about their hometown. With the author's photographs, the book leads its readers on a journey through the city, showing them the oldest buildings, businesses, neighborhoods, and landmarks. Read the entire article. I ordered several copies of Mimi's book. If you would like a copy, please give me a call. I'd be more than happy to drop one off for you.

According to a report issued by the city in late July, Glendale's water restrictions are working. As a result, water use in Glendale was down almost 12% in June compared to June of 2021. Congrats, Glendale residents. Read the whole story.

Two new housing bills are making their way through the Senate, Senate Bill 1105 and SB 679. Please read through them carefully. If passed, funding will come through additional property and small business taxes.

A quick note about the housing market: prices continue to remain strong. The market is shifting to longer market times and a bit more inventory. This is still an opportune time to sell. Buyers now have a more comprehensive selection of inventory.

If you or someone you know is looking for new construction in La Crescenta, the home I have listed at 5715 Canyonside Rd. is an absolute stunner. Over 300 sq.Ft. with two main suites, one on the main floor.

Remember, please always feel free to call with any real estate or referral needs you may have. I'm here to help.
